

THE KING'S COLLEGE

December 2005

Dear Alumni,

As we look back on 2005, we have determined that more timely and regular communication from us to you, our valued alumni, is essential as we move into 2006. Therefore, you will begin to receive a monthly e-newsletter meant to update you on current events at the college and answer any questions that you might have.

CURRENT EVENTS:

Dino Kartsonakis, TKC class of '64, performed a live, on-stage concert in New York City at Carnegie Hall on Thursday, December 15th. Dino is a world renowned pianist and entertainer, and has won many Dove Awards and a Grammy for his work. The King's College hosted a pre-concert reception for the event which Jim O'Bryon, TKC class of '64, helped sponsor. Also in attendance were Judy Snead '71, Alex Turoczi '68 and his wife Sallie '67. Howie and Joyce Miller were also in attendance, along with Dan and Vangie Mercado, parents of Tim Mercado '82. It was a beautiful event, enjoyed by all.

KEY ISSUES:

One of the key issues many of you have raised is the completion of an alumni directory. Please know that we are as anxious to get this in your hands as you are to receive it. However, we want to make sure we are providing the most comprehensive information possible. Therefore, we are in the process of the most extensive search in the history of TKC/NBC to find, update, and correct the contact information of all our alumni. As soon as we have completed this process, we will contract with a company to complete the project.

Also, The King's College Advancement Team is eager to communicate with you. We are extensively thinking through the best and most efficient means to reach out and connect with our storied history. Please help us by making sure your records are up-to-date in our system. Simply go to www.tkc.edu/alumni to update your contact information. And of course passing this along to any alum that you are in contact with is very helpful as well. .

Please feel free to contact Jordan Fischer '05, who is your representative and ready to assist you with any questions or concerns at 212-659-7288 or alumni@tkc.edu.

Have a blessed Christmas season as you celebrate the birth of our Savior!
