

King's Leadership Scholarship

The purpose of the King's Leadership Scholarship is to identify emerging young leaders and encourage them to attend The King's College, New York City. The King's College exists to educate students who will shape and eventually lead the great institutions of the world through careers in government, business, law, media, education, civil society, the arts and the church. Every student at King's is presented with the challenge to do something great with their lives, and the King's Leadership Scholarship helps identify those likely to accept that challenge.

The award is granted on a one-time, individual basis and must be applied to freshman year costs. Minimum awards begin at $500. Recipients of the King's Leadership Scholarship are also eligible for academic awards and any applicable financial aid. An on-campus interview may be required for some scholarship candidates. These awards are made possible by the generous gifts of alumni and friends from around the world who wish to see the mission of the College advanced.
