

TKCAA Executive Committee Candidates for 2018-2019 Election

Candidates for President (vote for one)

Richard B. Millham '90

Rick is the president and owner of Millham Companies, Inc., a 2018 “Best of Bucks [County] Award”-winning insurance agency located in Doylestown, Pa., serving Southeastern Pennsylvania and Central New Jersey. Rick has 28 years in the insurance industry, earning his Certified Insurance Counselor designation in 1994. He has served on the Young Agents Advisory Council for the Travelers Insurance Company, is the president of LeTip of Doylestown, and chairs the school board of Plumstead Christian School.

Rick’s other affiliations include membership in The Rotary Club of Doylestown and chairing The James A. Michener Art Museum Business Partners Advisory Board. He and his wife Lori (Straton) '91 have two children and worship at Calvary Church of Souderton, Pa.

Rick has served on the Alumni Association’s executive committee since 1997 as a representative, treasurer, vice president, and president, and in 2007 received the Distinguished Service Award.

Sarah (Ferrara) Keenan '12

Sarah, a PPE graduate, has spent years working with think tanks focused on advancing free-market solutions. She started her career at the Manhattan Institute in New York City and for the past three years has worked as the coalitions manager for State Policy Network—a connector organization for over 150 state and national think tanks across the country.

From 2014-2017, she served as a representative on the Alumni Association's executive committee and led a subcommittee on communications. During a year off from elected work with the alumni association, she continued to serve by launching regional alumni chapters in Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. Some of her favorite experiences at King’s were serving as helmsman for the House of Margaret Thatcher, leading TKC’s first educational summer trip to Paris, and interning at the United Nations Democracy Fund. Originally from St. Louis, Mo., she now lives in Washington, D.C. with her husband Scott and their pet plants. They attend Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church and enjoy mentoring young people in their spare time. She is passionate about connecting alumni to each other to advance the mission of The King’s College.

Chris Ross '10

An Ohio native, Chris graduated from the Fordham University School of Law in 2015 and is a litigation associate at Sidley Austin LLP, a law firm in Washington, D.C. He recently completed a clerkship for the Honorable Alice M. Batchelder of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and served as a Deputy Solicitor General in the Ohio Attorney General's Office. The son of King's alumni Bob ('85) and Laureen (Henley) ('86), Chris has been connected to King's all his life, and has served the Alumni Association as a member of the executive committee, of which he is the outgoing president, since 2011. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, sipping cold brew coffee, and traveling.
